

Lake Powell

Thursday, September 7th through Sunday, September 10th
Wahweap Campground • Lake Powell, AZ

It'll still be GRAND, but we're going to Lake Powell this year.

Unfortunately every day in September was gamed/booked by all the tour groups...we didn't have a chance. So we looked around for something different. We've booked two adjacent group campsites for tents. 2 & 3 in the Wahweap Campground in Lake Powell, AZ. We'll have two ramadas, nearby bathrooms, free Wi-Fi, and no parking restrictions. There are also nearby sites for those who want to bring up their own RV.

Besides the fabulous nearby water feature, there is boating, hiking, fishing, shopping, and the natural beauty of Rainbow Bridge.

The Saturday dinner will be Chicago-themed, think sliders, Chicago hot dogs (no ketchup allowed), and Italian Beef. Bring your Chicago swag to show off, a side dish or desert is also appreciated. Because of the ramadas, we don't even need to be concerned about possible weather issues. Cocktails and appetizers will start around 5pm and dinner will follow when Stan says it's ready.

The weather will be a high in the mid 80's and in the upper 50's at night, and the drive from Phoenix (Jeff's and Michael's ranchette) is about four hours, around 250 miles.

We'll keep the costs the same as Grand Canyon:

$35 for Members

$45 for non-members

$15 for dinner only, if you're staying at your own site
