

White Tank Campout

Friday December 30th - Sunday January 1st

You can arrive anytime after noon on Friday. We have reserved a cluster of sites with electricity & water. Pricing is per site for trailer/RV or tent. Access to all sites is paved. Sites are fairly level and a picnic table, a barbecue grill, a fire ring. Quiet hours are from 10 pm to 6 am. A modern restroom with hot showers is close by. Trash dumpster and RV dump are located at the entrance of the campground. Remember to bring food, water, hiking gear and firewood. Your moderately behaved dogs are welcome.

On Saturday, Christine will be leading a trip to the nearby World Wildlife Zoo. View the DA calendar for more information on this event. At 4pm, we gather around the host's site 14 for appetizers, which will be provided. Dinner will be potluck and starts around 4:30 pm so bring a favorite dish to share. Check out time on Sunday is Noon.

$65 for Trailer/RV site inc. electric & water

$45 for tent in tent area inc. electric & water

Sites can accommodate 1 trailer/RV & 1 tent or 2 tents. If you are tenting & want a site exclusively to yourself, then be sure to pay the $65 fee.

Please register and pay on the Desert Adventure web site

www.DesertAdventures.org

Hot water will be at the trip leader's site 14, so bring your coffee, cocoa, soup, etc. Tenters be sure to bring an elec cord of at least 50' so that you can run power to your tent.

Directions: White Tank Mountain Regional Park is located at the very west end of Olive Ave about 15 miles west of the 101. Stop at the entrance check in and tell them you are with Desert Adventures. Obtain your permit. If there are any issues, text me.

Nearby points of interest are: White Tanks Riding Stable, Wildlife World Zoo & Luke Air Force Base.

Your trip leaders will once again be Mountain Men Joe&Hans who can be reached at
